

are twenty two Federal Post Offices in county. A majority of all the offices in the county are occupied by Federalists, never been thus from the foundation of the State, to the shame of the Democratic party it is spoken. When we put weapons in hands of our enemies, if they cut us it is no better than we deserve. Private contest, all the Federal posts throughout this State have been actively used against us. In numerous instances have been delayed, Democratic papers used, and all accommodation denied to us while the Federal papers were franked, and every favor and facility to our opponents.

Surprising to us, with knowledge of management of the numerous army of Federalists, that they alone did not defect from the State. Such a state of most no longer be permitted to exist, in principle, and pernicious in practice [Me.] Dem.

WNS OF COMMERCE.—As all

things relating to the prosperity of Mississippi are interesting, we lay our readers some information furnished by a citizen of this town who attended the sale of lots in the new town site called Corinth, in the northern part of this

This town is on the river, miles above Helena, and about the same distance below Memphis, five miles due west from

Springs, and twenty two from Hernando. Its founders anticipate that it will be the center of the four counties, naturally the best in the State. The country immediately adjacent, is altogether bottom land, extending twelve miles back, and about seventy acres below the town, and is at all danger of overflow.

The route from Tuscaloosa, Alabama to Little Rock, Arkansas, is through this new town. The distance of the first named town is one hundred and sixty-five miles from commerce. The landing is unsurpassed by any on the western water.

A view is enjoyed, up and down the river, of from sixteen to twenty miles. On the 29th ult. a crowd of upwards of three hundred persons assembled, and lots were sold to the amount of one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, averaged seven hundred dollars each. There are good roads leading to the town from the adjacent country. A post office is established. The Hernando Rail Road and Banking Company will commence banking operations whenever the resumption of specie payments declared by the other Banks. Already houses are being erected, and merchants have settled with stocks and goods, and those interested in it confident of its becoming a town busy enterprise, and the emporium of the western section of the Glorious News!—The Ohio river has her bounds, and risen 10 feet. The steamer Diana, from above, bound for Orleans, passed 40 steam boats between Louisville and Vicksburg, primarily from the Ohio. How pleasant the scene merchants begin to look—and happy the whole people of the Mississippi valley begin to feel.

put the name of WILLIAM M. at the head of our columns. He man whom we believe should be appointed to fill the office vacated by Judge Gwin. So soon as we shall learn that Mr. Gwin will allow the use of his we shall ardently advocate his present to that high station. The Deity owe him a debt of gratitude for his munificent conduct last winter—the time to pay it.

OBITUARY.—[COMMUNICATED.]

In Marshall County, Mississippi, 27th November, Mrs. HARRIET EET, consort of John R. Norfleet in the 29th year of her age.

How does it fall to the lot of any record the death of a more amiable, and worthy woman than Mrs. E. She was the daughter of Adam and was born in Gates County Carolina.—In the winter of 1835, husband emigrated to this County through throned amongst strangers, in her native home and kindred the urbanity of her manners, and she soon won for herself the and friendship of all who became associated with her.—She professed religion at the early age of fourteen, and ever since a warm and devoted heart of the sacred cause in which she embarked.—Abroad, she was destined for all those qualities, which adorn the female character; in the domestic circle, women's true her virtues shone with peculiar reflecting happiness and tranquillity around her—she has left a beloved husband and four interesting children to lament her loss, whilst society at is deprived of one of its brightest ornaments.—Truly we may say, "Death loves a shining mark." Her eyes have closed for the last time in all terrestrial objects, but have opened again we trust, upon things pure and celestial, and which pass not away.

CIRCULAR.

BANK OF MEWEN, KING & CO?

Holly Springs, Mississippi.

THE commissioners, to whom has been entrusted for final settlement, the business of this institution, take this method of advising the individual holders of the notes of this institution, that they should not suffer sacrifice of them, as they will certainly be redeemed.

In order to satisfy the community on this subject the commissioners submit the following brief statement of facts:

The business of the institution, was, on the 6th March last, transferred to three Commissioners, in order to its speedy and final adjustment. Since which time no discounts have been made, and consequently no increase has been made of the amount in circulation; on the contrary the amount has been reduced since that time, more than two thirds, and the amount of assets remaining in their hands, is ample sufficient to take up the remaining issues. Though they cannot render them at once available, and must therefore ask, that the holders of the notes and certificates, will exercise a little forbearance, until they can do so. To accomplish which, as speedily as practicable, no efforts will be spared on their part. In the mean time those who hold certificates and those who may hereafter make deposits, will receive interest on the same until paid.

The entire amount now remaining in circulation is less than $100,000, and in addition to the assets of the institution unencumbered property was mortgaged by the stockholders to secure its ultimate solvency, amounting in value, to about two and a half millions of dollars.

To satisfy the community still more fully, as to the solvency of this institution, a list of names of the stockholders is appended; the number, responsibility and known solvency of whom, ought to satisfy the minds of the most incredulous on this subject. These stockholders are all bound individually and collectively for the redemption of the issues of this Bank—no such bonds as if each of them had signed every note in circulation.

The institution has not purchased one dollar of paper with other Mississippi currency and will not do so. The debts due the institution unless speedily adjusted, will be collected through the courts as soon as it can be done, and the issues of this Bank will be redeemed at par with the best currency that can be procured.

Respectfully submitted by
A. C. MEWEN,
JNO. R. WILSON, Commissioners
R. H. PATILLO,

December 5th, 1838.
